

About State Convention

Written by jer

Wednesday, 11 April 2007 15:35 - Last Updated Friday, 11 April 2008 15:41

About State Convention

Jaycees Conventions take place twice a year, in February and September. Jaycees gather from across Wisconsin to discuss business of the Wisconsin Jaycees, take training courses, and have a great time and partake in social events. Convention locations change from year to year. Be sure to check here for current or upcoming convention dates and registration.